

Each year before the annual meeting, owners elect representatives to serve on the Co-op's Board of Directors. This year, we have three candidates running and four open seats on the Board. Since there are fewer candidates than there are open seats, we are asking owners to approve the three candidates. Please review the candidate information below and then complete and return the form at the bottom of the page to indicate your approval.

Jim Sims

Jim has been a resident of Jackson County for 43 years. He is an attorney at the Center for NonProfit Legal Services. Over the years, he has served various community organizations including as the Chairman of the Board of Southern Oregon Public Television, as an Ashland City Council Member, and as President of the Ashland Food Co-op during its start up years.

Jim has served on the Medford Food Co-op board since before the store opened. He is motivated to continue to serve on the board, because our Co-op is growing and our Board has many goals in progress. Soon we'll be adding the Co-op deli and over the next few years we'll be planning for and expanding the store. Jim would like to continue seeing these goals through.

Kellie Hill

Kellie is a Nutrition Therapist and proprietor of The Right Plan Nutritional Counseling. Kellie instructs cooking classes and advises clientele on finding optimal health using nutrient dense whole foods. She is the best selling author of five books and has been featured on more than 50 television shows across the country.

Kellie has served on the Medford Food Co-op board for 2 1/2 years. She would like to continue to serve on the board, because local, sustainable food is the backbone of our community. She is honored and grateful to be able to help pave this continuing journey.

Kristi Schoenbachler

Kristi is the CFO at Medical Eye Center and has worked there for 12 years. Along with formal education and experience in finance and accounting, Kristi also has a very strong interest in the impact that good nutrition has on overall health.

Kristi was recently appointed to a vacant seat on the Medford Food Co-op Board and is motivated to continue to be involved as the Co-op expands to meet the demands for nutritious food in the Rogue Valley.

I approve the the following candidates to serve on the Board of Directors (please put a checkmark next to each candidate that you approve):
